11.3 Uses Permitted With Conditions, Agricultural Uses

Section 11.3: Uses Permitted with Conditions, Agricultural Uses is hereby amended to add subsection 11.3.4 for the keeping of Residential Chickens as a Conditional Use:

A. Keeping of chickens lawful. Subject to the standards in this article, it shall be lawful to keep of up to 8 female domestic chickens (hens).

B. Number of Chickens. The number of chickens authorized per parcel shall comply with the following, subject to all other standards in this article:
   a. Minimum lot size of 30,000 square feet of any residential parcel is required for the keeping of up to four chickens;
   b. For each additional 1,500 square feet of any residential parcel, one additional hen may be kept up to a maximum of 8.

C. Specific standards for chickens.
   a. No male chickens (roosters) over the age of three months are permitted.
   b. No chickens may run at large. All chickens must be contained with the property boundary.
   c. The property’s occupant shall provide the chickens with a covered, predator-proof chicken house that is thoroughly ventilated, of sufficient size to admit free movement of the chickens. The chicken house must be adjacent to and provide free access to the chicken enclosure. Any heat source or electrical facilities installed in a chicken house must comply with all adopted building and electrical codes of the county.

d. Chickens shall be secured within the chicken house from sunset to sunrise.

e. Chicken enclosures and houses must be kept in a neat and sanitary condition at all times, and must be cleaned on a regular basis so as to prevent offensive odors.

f. Chickens shall have continuous access to adequate food and water.

g. Stored feed must be kept in a rodent- and predator-proof container.

h. Chickens shall be maintained in a healthy condition. Ill chickens shall either receive appropriate medical care or be culled.

i. No chicken house shall be located closer than twenty (20) feet to any structure inhabited by someone other than the chicken owner, custodian, or keeper, and not closer than ten (10) feet to any property line. Chicken houses may be movable but must comply with all standards of this section.

j. No chicken shall be kept in a manner so as to create noxious odors or noise of a loud, persistent and habitual nature.

k. No chickens shall be slaughtered within the public view.

D. Property Owners Consent. Where the party seeking to keep chickens is not the fee owner of the property upon which chickens will be kept, the applicant shall obtain the property owner's consent in writing to keep chickens on the property. The owner's consent shall be submitted with the permit application or renewal.

E. Enforcement. Upon receiving a complaint of a possible violation, the code enforcement officer will investigate and determine if a violation of this section exists. If the animal control officer determines a violation exists, the officer may serve upon the permit holder or the owner or lessee of the property a written notice of violation and an order to take corrective action, may issue a warning, or may immediately issue a violation notice.
